Absolutely. Let's draft a portion of the "People's Progressive Re-Authorization Act of 2025" in a format that resembles actual congressional legislation, focusing on the sections we've discussed:

People's Progressive Re-Authorization Act of 2025
A Bill
To re-appropriate funds from the Department of Defense budget, to establish I.D.E.A.S. Omnipartisan Appropriations, and to strengthen the United States Institute of Peace.
Be it enacted by the Congress assembled,
Title I: Re-Appropriation of Funds and Contractual Requirements
Section 101. Percentage-Based Re-Appropriation.
(a) In General.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of Defense shall reduce the overall Department of Defense budget by 10 percent for each of the fiscal years 2026 through 2030.

(b) People's Progressive Fund.—The funds re-appropriated under subsection (a) shall be transferred to a fund to be known as the "People's Progressive Fund".

Section 102. Targeted Budget Cuts.

(a) F-35 Program Reduction.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary of Defense shall reduce the budget allocation for the F-35 Joint Strike Fighter program by $8,000,000,000 (eight billion dollars) for the fiscal year 2026.

(b) Report.—The Secretary of Defense shall, within 90 days of the enactment of this Act, submit a report to Congress detailing the specific components of the F-35 program affected by the reduction under subsection (a).

Section 103: USIP Funding Protections.

(a) Funding Restoration.—Any funds previously removed from the budget of the United States Institute of Peace by actions not directly related to its congressionally mandated mission are hereby restored and re-appropriated.

(b) Protection from Executive Overreach.—The funding of the United States Institute of Peace shall be protected from any future actions from Departments, that are not directly related to the USIP congressional mandated mission.

Section 104. I.D.E.A.S. Omnipartisan Appropriations Mandate.

(a) In General.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, beginning in fiscal year 2026, and continuing thereafter, no less than 44 percent of all federal contracts awarded under this Act, and any other federal appropriations, shall be awarded to businesses and organizations that demonstrate a commitment to I.D.E.A.S. (Inclusive Diversity, Equality, Authenticity, Sustainability) principles.

(b) I.D.E.A.S. Principles Defined.—For the purposes of this section, I.D.E.A.S. principles shall be defined as: (1) Inclusive: Actively working to include underrepresented groups. (2) Diversity: Demonstrating a workforce and leadership that reflects the diversity of the United States. (3) Equality: Providing equal opportunities and fair treatment for all employees and stakeholders. (4)

Authenticity: Operating with transparency and accountability. (5) Sustainability: Implementing environmentally sustainable practices.

(c) I.D.E.A.S. Oversight Commission.—There is hereby established an independent I.D.E.A.S. Oversight Commission, which shall be responsible for developing and enforcing I.D.E.A.S. certification standards for federal contractors.

(d) Composition.—The Commission shall consist of an equal number of members appointed by the Speaker of the House, the Minority Leader of the House, the Majority Leader of the Senate, and the Minority Leader of the Senate.

(e) Report.—The Commission shall submit an annual report to Congress detailing the progress made in achieving the 44 percent goal under subsection (a).
